

About us

The mixed committee of new drugs assessment set up in 2003 is made up of the individual committees from Andalusia, Basque Country, Catalonia Health Institute, Aragon and Navarre. Each local committee is formed by both doctors and pharmacists working for the National Health Service.

The Navarre Committee is coordinated by the Drug Information Unit of the Navarre Regional Health Service. All members must declare their conflicts of interest and this information is publicly available.