The image shows a single page of a handwritten musical manuscript. The paper is aged and slightly discolored. The music is written on ten staves. The first five staves contain the main melody with lyrics written below the notes. The next three staves appear to be for a basso continuo or a similar accompaniment, with some notes and rests. The final two staves continue the melody. The handwriting is in a cursive style typical of the 18th or 19th century. The lyrics are in Italian and appear to be a liturgical or devotional text. There are some ink smudges and a small tear on the right edge of the paper.

Handwritten musical score for the first system. It consists of five staves. The top four staves are for voices, and the bottom staff is for basso continuo. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves.

mi ser u - bi fu gi am re - bi fu gi am mi se ab - te De us me us

Handwritten musical score for the second system. It continues the vocal and basso continuo parts from the first system. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves.

De us me us De us me us mi se re re me i me i dum

Handwritten musical score for the third system. It concludes the page with various musical notations, including repeat signs and final cadences. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves.
